

REVA: Litigating Ethnic Profiling

REVA: Litigating Ethnic Profiling 15 February 2014

ABF-huset, Sveavägen 41, Stockholm

Agenda

Moderator: Linda Stark

9.30 Coffee

10.00 – 10.15

Introduction

Petra Herzfeld Olsson, Associate Professor in Law, Uppsala University

10.15 – 12.00

Presentation of international cases

Legal arguments and procedural choice, evidence, remedies and settlements, client identification, client profile

Slim Ben Achour, Lawyer, WHB-Associés (France)

Cristina de la Serna, Resident Fellow, Open Society Justice Initiative (Spain)

Maxim Ferschtman, Senior Legal Advisor, Open Society Justice Initiative (The Netherlands)

11.30 – 12.00

Q&A Session

12.00 – 13.00

Lunch

13.00 – 14.30

Presentation of report: Documentation of “stop and ID” by the Swedish police and follow up discussion

Peter Leander, journalist

Q&A Session

14.30 – 15.00

Coffee

15.00 – 16.30

Litigation in Sweden

Applicable Swedish and international law, arguments and procedural aspects, evidence, remedies – civil and administrative remedies, objectives with litigation and goals for the future.

Paul Lappalainen, Senior expert, DO/Equality Ombudsman (Sweden)

John Stauffer, Chief Lawyer, Civil Rights Defenders (Sweden)

Peter Varga, Associate, Lewis & Partners Law Firm (Sweden)

Panel discussion

16.30 Closing